Journey through Vietnam

Day-by-Day Itinerary

DAY 1: Depart U.S. for Hanoi, Vietnam

DAY 2: Arrive Hanoi

We arrive in the Vietnamese capital then transfer to our hotel.

DAY 3: Hanoi

This morning we embark on an orientation tour of this French-accented city with broad tree-lined boulevards and colonial architecture. We pass Hoan Kiem Lake; visit the marvelous Temple of Literature (c. 1070); and tour infamous Hoa Lo Prison, also known as the “Hanoi Hilton” during the Vietnam War. Later we walk the narrow streets of the diverse Ancient Quarter, where tonight we gather at a local restaurant for a welcome dinner.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 4: Hanoi/Ha Long Bay

This morning we depart on a full-day excursion to Ha Long Bay, a breathtaking waterway sprinkled with 2,000 islands and islets and surrounded by a fairytale landscape of limestone cliffs, secret grottos, and hidden caves. Here we board a traditional “junk” for lunch and an afternoon cruise.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 5: Hanoi/Da Nang

This morning we take a walking tour of Ba Dinh Square, a popular complex of cultural and historic sites, including the marble and granite mausoleum of Ho Chi Minh, the Presidential Palace, and thousand-year-old One Pillar Pagoda, a Buddhist retreat. This afternoon we fly to Da Nang, Vietnam’s third largest city, situated on the south central coast. Upon arrival, we tour the acclaimed Museum of Cham Sculpture, which celebrates the Cham people’s Hindu legacy with a fine collection of artifacts dating from the 7th to 15th centuries. After we reach our beachfront hotel, the remainder of the day is at leisure in this splendid setting.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 6: Da Nang/Hoi An

This morning we visit nearby Hoi An, where a succession of Dutch, Chinese, Portuguese, and Japanese traders helped to build an architecturally diverse and colorful village where many ancient traditions still hold sway. A UNESCO World Heritage site, Hoi An's Old Town is a charming car-free pedestrian zone lined with tailors, shops, and art galleries. We enjoy a cooking class and lunch in Hoi An then this afternoon is at leisure to either remain in Hoi An on your own or return to our beachside resort for a relaxing interlude.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 7: Da Nang/Tra Que

A morning walking tour of a nearby farming village reveals the daily life of a local community up close. Here, we stroll through endless rows of vibrant green vegetables before sampling some of the community's bounty at a local farm-to-table restaurant.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 8: Da Nang/Hue

We depart this morning by coach for the ancient imperial city of Hue, whose palaces, temples, and tombs evoke its past grandeur as home to emperors and mandarins. We explore the Imperial City – enjoying a traditional cyclo ride along the way – housing the Forbidden Purple City complex where emperors lived with their families and now a UNESCO site. We also visit the busy Dong Ba Central Market. Tonight we enjoy dinner accompanied by traditional music.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 9: Hue

This morning we cruise along Hue's Perfume River to peaceful Thien Mu Pagoda, a Buddhist monastery that ranks among the city's oldest and most important monuments. After admiring the seven-story octagonal tower, we visit the palatial Tomb of Minh Mang (c. 1840), with its pavilions and courtyards modeled after the Ming Tombs of China. This afternoon we see the tombs of Tu Duc, a gem of royal architecture; and Khai Dinh, an elaborate mix of ancient and modern, European and Asian.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 10: Hue/Da Nang/Can Tho

We return to Da Nang by coach this morning then board our flight to the river port of Can Tho, provincial capital of the Mekong Delta. With its tributaries covering some 15,600 square miles of southwestern Vietnam, the Mekong supplies half of the country's rice and fish – and ranks as a biological treasure trove known for its multitude of bird and flower species.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 11: Can Tho/Mekong Delta

We rise early for today's journey by boat to the floating market at Cai Rang on the Mekong's lower reaches. Then the remainder of the day is at leisure before we dine tonight at a local restaurant.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 12: Mekong Delta/Saigon

An hour-long coach ride this morning brings us to the upper reaches of the storied Mekong. Here we board motorized sampans for an up-close look at river life as we explore the maze of tributaries and inlets that lead to tiny settlements and villages populated by fishermen and farmers. After lunch together, we continue on by coach to Saigon (the name Ho Chi Minh City is used interchangeably). We reach our hotel late afternoon; dinner is on our own in this vibrant city.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 13: Saigon

A morning tour includes the former Presidential Palace, which served as the South Vietnamese government's wartime headquarters. Now known as Reunification Palace, it was here that the first Communist tanks rolled into Saigon on April 30, 1975; it remains preserved as a museum almost exactly as it was on that day. We also tour the History Museum, with its excellent collection of art and artifacts of the indigenous peoples of Vietnam. Later we attend a traditional water puppet performance.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 14: Saigon

This morning we visit the Cu Chi Tunnels, the infamous underground network from which North Vietnamese forces operated in wartime. Tonight we celebrate our journey over a farewell dinner.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 15: Depart for U.S

Today we transfer to the airport for our return flights to the U.S.

Meals: Breakfast
