Portrait of Italy: From the Amalfi Coast to Venice

Day-by-Day Itinerary

DAY 1: Depart U.S. for Naples, Italy

DAY 2: Arrive Naples/Amalfi Coast

After arriving in Naples this morning, we travel to the storied Amalfi Coast, a popular resort and our base for exploring Italy's Campania region. Listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1997, the Amalfi Coast is one of the most popular and beautiful destinations in Italy. We dine at our hotel tonight, as we will throughout our stay here.

Accommodations: Hotel San Francesco

Meals: Dinner

DAY 3: Ravello

This morning we experience this breathtaking coast by sea as we cruise from our hotel to Amalfi Center (weather permitting). We pass by the Duomo (cathedral), which dominates the main piazza, and then we are free to wander as we please through Amalfi's atmospheric waterfront or browse in the small shops that surround the square. We have lunch on our own, then ascend to mountaintop Ravello, with its spectacular gardens and coastal views. It's widely agreed that, at 1,100 feet above sea level, the view from Ravello is stunning; we can see a splendid panorama of the entire Amalfi Coast from here.

Accommodations: Hotel San Francesco

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 4: Pompeii/Amalfi Coast/Sorrento

Our full-day excursion begins in Pompeii, the city frozen in time by the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius in 79 CE but not excavated until 1748. The ash from this eruption literally "froze" the town in time, leaving exquisite ruins that show us how these ancient Romans lived: vivid frescoes, a forum, and one of the largest surviving Roman amphitheaters in existence. After a tour and lunch on our own here, we embark on a breathtaking drive along the winding Amalfi Coast road, high above the azure Mediterranean – with pauses for photos and a stop in Sorrento along the way. This 31-mile stretch of coastline from Sorrento to Salerno has inspired movies, music, and books; indeed, it is one of the most glorious drives in Europe – or anywhere, for that matter. We return to our hotel late afternoon.

Accommodations: Hotel San Francesco

DAY 5: Amalfi Coast/Montecassino/Rome

En route to Rome today, we visit the town of Montecassino, whose abbey is the mother church of the - Benedictine order and a center of medieval art. A German stronghold during World War II, the hilltop abbey was destroyed by Allied bombing and then rebuilt as a replica of the 17th-century original. We tour the abbey, then continue on to the Eternal City. We arrive at our well-located hotel mid-afternoon; our tour director will lead an informal walk of the nearby area.

Accommodations: Monti Palace Hotel

Meals: Breakfast

DAY 6: Rome

From St. Peter's Square to the Spanish Steps and the Forum to the Trevi Fountain, Rome is filled with some of the greatest monuments, museums, and ruins in Western civilization. This morning we tour the heart of this ancient city: the 55,000-seat Colosseum, built in 72 CE to stage gladiator spectacles, and the temples of the Forum, ancient Rome's political and legal center. The afternoon is free to explore on our own and the possibilities are endless: shopping along the fashionable Via Veneto; sipping espresso in beautiful Piazza Navona; seeing the Pantheon, the city's best preserved ancient building; tossing a coin into Trevi Fountain; or visiting any number of renowned museums and churches.

Accommodations: Monti Palace Hotel

DAY 7: Rome

We have another morning of touring followed by a free afternoon. Today we visit the Vatican for a tour of St. Peter's Square and Basilica and see the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican Museums. Highlights include Michelangelo's Pieta in St. Peter's, considered one of the greatest sculptures of all time; his frescoed ceiling of the Sistine Chapel, now restored to its original glory; and art-filled St. Peter's Basilica itself, the most important church in all Christendom. The afternoon is free to experience Rome's myriad of delights as we wish. For solitude, the grounds of the Villa Borghese offer a brief respite from the bustle of the city. For shopping, fabulous designer stores (and great people watching!) can be found at the famed Via Veneto or the Via del Corso. And lovely Piazza Navona is the perfect spot to sit at a sidewalk café and soak up the vibrant atmosphere of this incredible city.

Accommodations: Monti Palace Hotel

DAY 8: Rome/Orvieto

Leaving Rome, we travel north through a pastoral landscape of gentle agricultural land bounded by mountain wilderness and dotted with traditional villages and medieval hill towns. This is Umbria, known as the "green heart of Italy." Mid-afternoon we reach Orvieto, perched high on a plateau above a vineyard-clad plain. After we check in at our hotel in the heart of the city's medieval quarter, our tour director leads us on an informal walking tour. Tonight we attend a cooking demonstration followed by dinner at a local farmhouse.

Accommodations: Grand Hotel Italia

DAY 9: Orvieto

This morning we embark on a guided walking tour of this dramatically set city. We visit the medieval Duomo, featuring a chapel with frescoes by Fra Angelico and Luca Signorelli's masterpiece The Last Judgment. Next we explore the formerly secret passages of Parco delle Grotte, a labyrinth of underground caves used since Etruscan times. Then the remainder of the day is free for independent exploration in this city known for its classic Orvieto white wine and its ceramics tradition dating back to the early medieval era. Today we can sample Orvieto's Umbrian cuisine with lunch and dinner on our own.

Accommodations: Grand Hotel Italia

DAY 10: Orvieto/Assisi

Today's excursion is to Assisi, considered a gem of an Umbrian town and where Saint Francis was born in 1182. Though the town itself is stunning with its inviting plazas, abundant flowers, buildings of white marble, and pervasive medieval air, the highlight of our day is a tour of the famed Basilica of St. Francis, which has been fully restored after an earthquake caused serious damage to the upper church in 1997. The church is the burial place of St. Francis and features the priceless Life of St. Francis frescoes by Giotto, depicting stories of the saint's life and deeds. We also visit the Basilica of St. Clare, displaying perhaps the world's most famous crucifix: the San Damiano Cross. There's time on our own to stroll the fountain-splashed piazzas and to enjoy local specialties for lunch. Dinner tonight is on our own.

Accommodations: Grand Hotel Italia

DAY 11: Orvieto/Siena/Tuscany

Continuing our journey, today we visit walled Siena, whose ochre-colored buildings and ancient ramparts evoke the city's medieval past. Fan-shaped Piazza del Campo is one of Europe's greatest public squares and its Duomo is one of Italy's finest. We set out on a guided walking tour that includes an inside visit to the Duomo, which houses masterpieces by Michelangelo and Donatello, and then have free time for lunch on our own and to explore as we wish.

Accommodations: Villa San Filippo

DAY 12: Florence

A living monument to the Renaissance, Florence is the crown jewel of Tuscany. We discover this splendid city on a full-day excursion that includes a morning walking tour. Then we visit the Galleria dell'Accademia to view Michelangelo's sublime David, as well as his pieces for the papal tombs; and the revered Duomo, with its stupendous dome by Brunelleschi. This afternoon is free to enjoy Florence as we wish. Tonight we enjoy dinner together at our hotel.

Please note: If you plan to visit the Uffizi Gallery during your free time, we highly recommend that you reserve your tickets as far in advance as possible for 1:30 p.m. on the date we visit Florence. This very popular museum often is sold out and it may not be possible to obtain tickets on site that afternoon. You can reserve tickets online; see the museum's website for details: www.uffizi.it/en/the-uffizi.

Accommodations: Villa San Filippo

DAY 13: San Gimignano

We encounter classic Tuscany today as we visit the hill town of San Gimignano, known for the 13 watchtowers that have left its skyline virtually unchanged since medieval times. Later we visit a local winery and enjoy a tasting served with the appropriate hors d'oeuvres. This region is best known for the Vernaccia di San Gimignano, a white wine made from grapes grown around Tuscany, and for the most well-known of all Italian wines, Chianti. Mid-afternoon we return to our lodgings, where we have time to relax before tonight's dinner at a local restaurant.

Accommodations: Villa San Filippo

DAY 14: Tuscany/Venice

Leaving Tuscany today, we travel through the Veneto region to Venice, city of drama, doges, canals, and Canaletto. We arrive early this afternoon; the remainder of the day is free to explore this wondrous city on our own. Venice (and its surrounding lagoon) rank as a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the world's most atmospheric destinations.

Accommodations: Carnival Palace Hotel

DAY 15: Venice

This morning's guided walking tour reveals a host of Venetian delights, such as: Piazza San Marco (St. Mark's Square), with its fantastic Basilica; the romantic Bridge of Sighs; and the Rialto district, with its bustling market. Our afternoon is at leisure to enjoy this timeless city as we wish, and the options are endless. Venice is an eminently walkable city, filled with cafes and shops to explore and laced with its trademark canals. Take a water taxi or gondola ride, enjoy some gelato after a lunch of Venetian seafood dishes, and revel in simply wandering around this world-class floating city. This evening we gather at a local restaurant for a farewell dinner to bid "arrivederci" to Italy and to our fellow travelers.

Accommodations: Carnival Palace Hotel

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 16: Depart for U.S.

We depart early this morning for our connecting flights to the U.S.

Meals: Breakfast
