Treasures of Peru

Day-by-Day Itinerary

DAY 1: Depart U.S. for Lima, Peru

We depart today for the Peruvian capital. Upon arrival we transfer directly to our hotel.

DAY 2: Lima

After spending the morning at leisure, we meet our Odysseys Unlimited Tour Director and fellow travelers at this afternoon's briefing about the journey ahead, then embark on a tour of colonial Lima. A highlight is our visit to treasured Casa de Aliaga, one of the oldest homes in Lima (c. 1535), with a rich architectural heritage and a collection of Peruvian art and artifacts. Given the land by his friend conquistador Francisco Pizarro, Jeronimo de Aliaga, one of Lima's founders, built the home that has been continuously occupied by his descendants ever since, some 18 generations. Other highlights include the Government Palace, Santo Domingo Church, and the Larco Herrera Museum, whose ceramics collection (including a renowned set of erotic pre-Columbian figures) is unparalleled. We enjoy our welcome dinner at the museum.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 3: Lima/Cuzco/Sacred Valley

This morning we transfer to the airport for the brief flight to Cuzco. Upon arrival we visit the sacred sites of Koricancha and the Convent of Santo Domingo, then continue on to the beautiful Sacred Valley, a region of Inca sites and indigenous villages. We stop in the colorful town of Pisac before reaching our hotel midafternoon.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 4: Sacred Valley

This morning we attend a traditional ceremony, "Offering to the Earth," and then set out for Ollantaytambo, a living town and site of massive Incan ruins dating to the 15th century that still inspire wonder today. After touring here we continue on to the town of Chinchero, set on a broad plateau presided over by a snowcapped mountain. Here, residents live much as their ancestors did, wearing traditional clothing and conducting business and local government by time-honored means. They also weave as their ancestors did, as we see at a demonstration of this age-old craft. Late this afternoon we return to our hotel, where we dine tonight.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 5: Sacred Valley/Machu Picchu/Aguas Calientes

Early this morning we board a train for the 1½-hour journey to Aguas Calientes, where after lunch we board a bus for Machu Picchu and our first guided visit of the stunning “Lost City of the Incas.” Thanks to its small size, our group will move nimbly through the ruins and have the leisure to absorb the beauty and mystery of this haunting UNESCO World Heritage site. Mid-afternoon we return to Aguas Calientes and our hotel, with time at leisure before dinner together tonight.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 6: Machu Picchu/Cuzco

This morning before the crowds of day-trippers arrive, we take our second guided tour of Machu Picchu, when the early morning sun bathes the stones in an evocative light. After lunch in Aguas Calientes, we return to Cuzco, arriving early evening. Dinner tonight is on our own.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 7: Cuzco

After a morning at leisure, we set out on a tour of the archaeological hub of the Americas, the continent’s oldest continuously inhabited city, and UNESCO World Heritage site. Dynamic and historic, Cuzco bears the marks of its Inca and Spanish forebears. We stop at the ruins of Sacsayhuamán, a masterpiece of Incan architecture, then enjoy lunch at a local restaurant.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 8: Cuzco/Puno

This morning we depart for the day-long journey by coach to Puno on the shores of Lake Titicaca. As we travel through the rugged snowcapped Andes dotted with small villages and herds of llama and alpaca, we make several stops along the way, beginning with Andahuaylillas, an attractive village known for its lovely 17th-century church. We continue on to the ruins at Raqchi, once the holiest site in the Incan empire; and La Raya, perched on Peru’s altiplano (high plain) and home to the Llama and Alpaca Research Center. We reach our hotel on the shores of Esteves Island on Lake Titicaca late this afternoon; it’s a short distance to the center of Puno from our hotel. Dinner tonight is on our own.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 9: Puno/Lake Titicaca

We spend the day exploring the fascinating life of Lake Titicaca, South America's largest lake and, at 12,500 feet above sea level, among the world's highest navigable lakes. By boat, we visit the Floating Islands of Los Uros, where the top-hatted Uros people live on "islands" made of the reeds that grow in the lake's shallows; in fact, the Uros rely on these reeds for their boats, the small huts in which they live, household items, and the handcrafts they sell to visitors. We also visit Isla Taquile, known for the high-quality textiles crafted by the indigenous people who live here; sales of their textiles support the self-sustaining Taquilenos. On our visit, we see the men in their signature woven woolen caps with floppy earpieces, and women in tailored waistcoats and multi-layered skirts. We also witness the breathtaking natural beauty surrounding us, with Bolivia's snowcapped Cordillera range a striking backdrop to the deep blue of Lake Titicaca. Tonight we celebrate our Peruvian adventure at a farewell dinner at our hotel.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 10: Puno/Lima/Depart for U.S.

This morning we visit the mysterious burial towers (chullpas) at Sillustani overlooking Lake Umayo. Following this excursion, we transfer to the airport for the flight to Lima, where we check into our day rooms at an airport hotel. Late this evening we depart on our flight to the U.S.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 11: Arrive U.S.

We arrive in the U.S. today and connect with our return flight home.
